Embark on an extraordinary journey into the depths of Jewish theology as it intertwines with Christian faith. "Opening The Covenant" unveils the intricate tapestry of biblical covenants, shedding fresh light on the relationship between God, Israel, and the Church.

Unveiling the Ancient Covenant

At the heart of Jewish theology lies the foundational covenant between God and Israel. This ancient agreement, established through Moses, set the stage for the nation's journey of faith and obedience. "Opening The Covenant" delves into the historical, cultural, and theological significance of this covenant, tracing its origins and exploring its implications for God's chosen people.

The Messiah in Jewish Thought

Jewish theology anticipates the coming of a Messiah, a deliverer who will usher in a new age of salvation and restoration. "Opening The Covenant" investigates the messianic prophecies of the Old Testament, examining their historical context and their influence on Jewish thought. Discover the diverse expectations and hopes surrounding the Messiah and his role in God's plan.

Jesus Christ: The Fulfillment of the Covenant

As the story unfolds, "Opening The Covenant" bridges the gap between Jewish and Christian theology, exploring the pivotal role of Jesus Christ in the fulfillment of the covenant. Delve into the New Testament accounts of Jesus' life, ministry, and teachings, and discover how his death and resurrection transformed the nature of God's relationship with his people.

The Christian Church and the Covenant

The book concludes with a thought-provoking examination of the relationship between the Christian Church and the covenant. "Opening The Covenant" explores the ways in which the Church has inherited the promises and responsibilities of Israel, while also recognizing its distinct identity and mission. Discover the ongoing dialogue and challenges surrounding the Church's role in God's covenantal plan.

THE CHURCH COVENANT

HAVING been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

WE engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

WE also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment, to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating drink as a beverage, and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Saviour.

WE further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Saviour, to secure it without delay.

WE moreover engage that, when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.
