At the heart of this enchanting story are the Ladybirds, a legendary all-female rock band that ruled the music charts in the 1970s. Decades later, as the Ladybirds prepare for a highly anticipated reunion tour, we follow the lives of three women whose paths intertwine with the iconic band.

There's Viv, a middle-aged music journalist who has always dreamed of meeting her idols. When she's assigned to cover the reunion tour, she finds herself caught up in a whirlwind of nostalgia, backstage drama, and unexpected connections.

Next, we meet Maggie, a former groupie who now runs a struggling vintage clothing store. As the Ladybirds' influence on fashion and pop culture comes back into the spotlight, Maggie seizes the opportunity to relive her youth and find a new sense of purpose.

Finally, we have Marisa, a young woman who discovers her mother's secret past as a member of the Ladybirds. As she delves into her family history, she uncovers a world of rock and roll excess, heartbreak, and the enduring power of female friendship.
