Max Freedom Long, a pioneer in the field of Huna, bridges the gap between the Kabbalah and the Western esoteric tradition of the Tarot.

Through his comprehensive analysis, Long reveals how the archetypal figures and symbols of the Tarot align with the Kabbalistic tree of life.

Exploring the Archetypes of the Tarot

The Tarot deck consists of 78 cards, each imbued with a unique archetype. These archetypes represent universal human experiences, emotions, and patterns of behavior. By understanding the symbolism and numerology of each card, you can gain invaluable insights into your own life.

Long's work illuminates the connections between the Tarot archetypes and the Kabbalistic sephiroth, or spheres of consciousness. This profound synthesis opens up new avenues for interpreting the Tarot, allowing you to delve deeper into its symbolic language.

The Power of Huna

Huna, an ancient Hawaiian spiritual tradition, focuses on the power of the mind and the interconnectedness of all things. Long incorporates Huna principles into his interpretation of the Kabbalah and Tarot, emphasizing the importance of self-awareness, intuition, and manifestation.

Through Huna, you can learn to access your subconscious mind, tap into your inner wisdom, and manifest your desires. The Kabbalah Tarot becomes a powerful tool for personal transformation and spiritual growth.

A Guide to Practical Application

Huna in the Kabbalah Tarot is not just a theoretical exploration; it is a practical guide to applying this profound wisdom in your daily life. Long provides clear instructions on how to use the Tarot for divination, meditation, and self-discovery.

With his clear and accessible writing style, Long empowers readers to unlock the secrets of the Kabbalah and Tarot, empowering them to navigate life's challenges and unfold their true potential.
